

Remuneration report 2022

Introduction

This remuneration report describes how the guidelines for remuneration to senior executives of Bulten AB (publ) (“Bulten” or “the Company”), adopted by the Bulten AGM, were applied in 2022. The report also contains information on remuneration to the CEO. The report has been drawn up in accordance with the Swedish Companies Act and the Swedish Corporate Governance Board’s Rules on Remuneration of the Board and Executive Management and on Incentive Programmes.

Further information on remuneration to senior executives can be found in Note 8 (Employees, employee benefit expenses and remuneration to the Board of Directors) on pages 85–86 of the 2022 Annual Report. Information about the work of the remuneration committee in 2022 can be found in the corporate governance report on page 60 of the 2022 Annual Report.

Fees to the Board are not covered by this report. Such remuneration is decided on annually at the AGM and reported in Note 8 on pages 85–86 of the 2022 Annual Report.

Developments in 2022

The CEO summarizes the Company’s overall results in the statement on page 6 of the 2022 Annual Report.

The Company’s remuneration guidelines: areas of application, purpose and deviations

One prerequisite for the successful implementation of the Company’s business strategy and for looking after its long-term interests, including its sustainability, is that the Company should be able to recruit and retain qualified employees. That requires the Company to be able to offer competitive total compensation in line with market conditions. The Company’s remuneration guidelines mean that senior executives can be offered competitive total compensation in line with market conditions. According to the remuneration guidelines, remuneration to senior executives may consist of the following components: a fixed salary, short-term incentive/variable cash payment (STI) and a long-term incentive program (LTI), pension benefits and other benefits such as health insurance, company car and occupational healthcare. The variable cash payment will be linked to the achievement of various financial targets. The performance targets shall be related to growth, operating profit net of depreciation on intangible assets (EBITA) in relation to sales and parameters relating to the return on capital employed (ROCE) and must aim to benefit Bulten’s business strategy and long-term interests. At Bulten, variable remuneration is at present only payable in the form of cash payments.

The guidelines can be found on page 61 of the 2022 Annual Report and are also available via Bulten’s website www.bulten.se. In 2022, the Company has complied with the applicable remuneration guidelines adopted by the general meeting of shareholders. No deviations have been made from the guidelines, or from the decision-making process which, according to the guidelines, should be applied to determine the remuneration. The auditor's statement on the Company's compliance with the guidelines can be found on the Company website, www.bulten.se. No return of remuneration has been required.

In addition to the remuneration included in the remuneration guidelines, the Company's general meetings have resolved to introduce long-term incentive programs whereby the participants are given the opportunity each financial year to obtain a bonus for meeting a target set for that year regarding an increase in the Company's earnings per share (profit per share) for the financial year compared to the previous financial year. The participants must use the entire bonus amount obtained within the LTI program for each financial year, net (net of tax), to acquire shares in Bulten on the market. The participant must then retain the acquired shares at least until March 31 of the second year after the year in which the bonus in LTI was paid. The outcome for LTI 2022 is described in more detail on page 85 of the 2022 Annual Report.
