

STATEMENT ON MODERN SLAVERY

Introduction

Bulten Ltd, and Bulten Group as parent company, are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chain or in any part of our business. This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our organisation's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31 March 2017.

Organisational Structure and Business

Bulten Ltd is part of the Bulten Group and our parent company is Bulten Fasteners AB based in Gothenburg, Sweden.

Bulten Ltd imports and exports fasteners for the automotive industry. Bultens external suppliers have committed to follow and act according to UN 10 principles or similar. Bulten conduct an assessment initially with new and potential suppliers which they have to pass in order to become a supplier. Bulten then conduct assessments regularly on current suppliers and has a SQA organisation (Supplier Quality Assurance) that works to develop and follow up our suppliers.

Based on this there is a low risk of slavery or human trafficking within our supply chain. Bulten disassociates itself from child labour and work carried out under duress or threat of violence, and supports and respects the protection of internationally asserted human rights. Bulten will develop its assessment model further in order to secure compliance to the Act on Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking. Bulten Ltd complies fully with all aspects of local legislation in all countries in which we operate.

Policies and Procedures

Bulten Group and Bulten Ltd have policies in place to ensure that we treat all employees with dignity and respect, regardless of gender, age, race, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, or any other protected characteristics. Good ethics, high business standards and trust are important concepts that permeate the group's corporate culture and the way to interact with employees, shareholders, customers, suppliers and all other. This is reflected in Bultens Code of Conduct, Anti-Corruption, Quality, Environment, Human Resources and Conflict minerals policies.
